

THE GOOCH FAMILY

CENTENARIAN DIES AT HER SON'S HOME

Mrs. Cynthia Ann Robertson Nearly 101 Years Old.

FUNERAL ON THURSDAY.
Died 11 Mar. 1941

She Had Been Resident of Grundy County for 91 Years.

Mrs. Cynthia Ann Robertson, Grundy county's oldest resident and its only centenarian, died at 11 o'clock this morning at the home of her son, W. A. Robertson, four miles southwest of Trenton.

Mrs. Robertson, who would have been 101 years old if she had lived until March 22, had been ill only about a month. In good health a year ago when she passed the 100-year mark, she continued in fair health until the death of a daughter, Mrs. Alice Cyphers, in January. She began to fail shortly afterward and Sunday her condition became much worse.

Mrs. Robertson was born in Charleston county, Missouri, March 22, 1840. She came to Grundy county in 1847 when she was about seven years old and had lived in this county ever since with the exception of a short period during the Civil War.

One of 10 Children.

She was the daughter of Elijah and Mary Gooch, Emory who came by horse and wagon to Charleston county from Madison county, Kentucky, in the 1820's, not long after Missouri had been admitted to the Union.

Mrs. Robertson was the seventh of 10 children. A sister, Mrs. Armina Williams, died in Kansas about three years ago at the age of 102. Mrs. Robertson was the last of her family. Other brothers and sisters reached ages well past 80.

She was married to John Robertson Jan. 24, 1861. The ceremony took place at her parents' home in Jefferson township with a justice of the peace, Tim Tinsley, officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Robertson first lived in the Gooch Creek community in Jefferson township and later bought land north of Hickory where she lived the rest of her life until five years ago. The past five years she had lived with her children.

Always in Jefferson Township.

When she first came to the county, her parents settled in what is now Jefferson township and that section of the county was her home until she died with exception of a short period when she and her children moved to Iowa during the Civil War.

She is survived by her son, W. A. Robertson, at whose home she died; four grandchildren, Mrs. Alice L. Kessler of near Sampel, Mrs. Mabel Southers and Virgil and Wilbur Robertson, all of southwest of Trenton; eight great grandchildren, Homer L. Woldridge of Kansas City, Mrs. Lois Crawford, Mrs. Mildred Tredway, Frank and Helen Cyphers, Robert Southers and De Wane and Ray Dale Robertson, all of Trenton or near Trenton, and eight great great grandchildren, Mary, Margaret and John Tredway, Carolyn, Robert and Louise Crawford of in and near Trenton, and Francis and Laird Woldridge of Kansas City.

She was preceded in death by her husband who died June 3, 1921; three daughters, Emma Jane who died in infancy, Mrs. Mary Laird who died Sept. 11, 1902, and Mrs. Alice Cyphers who died Jan. 18; three grandchildren, Mrs. Rowie Woldridge who died Sept. 4, 1909, Henry Laird who died Nov. 25, 1913, and Raymond Cyphers who died Jan. 20, 1937; and one great grandchild who died about 1908.

Funeral Thursday.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at Hickory Chapel church. Burial will be in the Bratton cemetery. The Rev. John Crenshaw, Methodist minister at Edinburg, will be in charge. The body is at the Gipsy Funeral Home here.

The 100th anniversary of Mrs. Robertson's birth was a memorable occasion. A family and community gathering was held on that day almost a year ago at the home of her son, W. A. Robertson. Scores upon scores of friends called at the home during the day and a big dinner was served to the many guests at noon.

Mrs. Robertson through the whole day sat quietly in her chair, greeting old friends, and chatting a few minutes with them all.

During that afternoon, she and her relatives, representing five generations, posed in a family group for a photograph.

Your next issue will begin volume four. Hope to have 2 more issues in your hands by March. I need material.

Dear Member,

This is the last issue in volume 3. As you know each issue covers from July of one year through June of the next. When I mailed out that first issue, which went to about 70 individuals, I had no way of knowing if there would be a second issue. Well my schedule has been far from perfect, but this is number 12. I have a number of you who have already paid for volume 4, and I will continue to accept renewals at $10.00 for issues to be dated July 1994 - June 1995. You who have been receiving the newsletter since the beginning may have noticed each year has a different cover color. Volume one is green, volume two is ivory, and volume 3, blue. I have not chosen the color for volume four but it probably will be gold. At this time I will not be soliciting subscriptions for volume 5. I may decide to go a different format with more pages per issue and sell each separate. Since postage 'library rate' has just gone up about 70% this may be a better way of doing the publication. And if it is not a sequence type publication with a definite date I will not be overdue as I am now.

I would like your comments on the above idea.

If you are not sure if you are paid up on TGF newsletter, check the date at the right of your name on the label. If it is '94, this is your last issue. If it is '95 you are paid up for 4 more issues.

I really appreciate all who have been contributing material for publication. If you can, please type your material, or do it in a very legible print using black ink. My copier will do blue ink but black is much better. When I have time I do retype copy that is not up to quality for direct publication. This however is time consuming and subject to error. I cannot use information which is confusing, not legible or unreadable. If you have poor hand writing, I suggest you slow down and print or type where possible. I will use good pictures when available. I will make copies of your original or pay you to do so on my approval. I plan to upgrade my computer equipment so I can reproduce a better photography in the newsletter.

Your suggestions for improvement are always welcome. Please let me hear from you and continue to sent information. I want family group records (FGR) from any year, however I am slow to print marriages after 1900. I also want copies of old birth certificates, marriage, deaths, obits (need name of paper and date) deeds, wills and most any other documents of historical significance. I will pay copying costs with prior approval.

Thanks, Cecil Daniels, Editor

GOOCH FAMILY ORIGINS

The following was contributed by Pauline McCants Beckham (Mrs. J. M.) who, with others of the family, has spent much time in collecting the records:

The name of Gooch has been spelled in various ways, namely, Gutch, Goodge, Goudge, Gutche, Gudche, and so on. It is listed in Bardsley's English and Welsh Names, the earliest record on file being dated 1273.

Dr. William Gouge, born 1575, was a learned Puritan whose commentary on the Hebrews is still consulted by scholars.

The name appeared early in Virginia records. Goochland County, Virginia, formed in 1727, was named for William Gooch, lieutenant governor of Virginia, 1727 til 1749.

Mrs. David B. Albright of Alexandria, Virginia, sent the following information to Miss Marguerite Gooch of Fort Lawn several years ago: John Gooch was born in Goochland County, Virginia. He married Elizabeth (Nancy?) Sleigh. (See John B. Boddie's Southside Virginia Families, pages 249, 259, 260, copy in Caroliniana Room, Lancaster County Library.) This John Gooch was son of John and Karenhappuch Hilliard Gooch of Goochland.

John and Elizabeth Sleigh Gooch also named one of their sons, John, the third in the line. John, born January 9, 1780, married Elizabeth Riddlespurger, born November 17, 1786. Whether he married before he migrated to South Carolina, or not, is not known. His Will recorded in Chester County, South Carolina was probated in November, 1840. His son Henry H. Gooch was executor. A wife by name of Polly survived John Gooch.

According to Old Lancaster County Deeds, Book K, page 322, John Gooch was one of the trustees of the tract of land deeded to the Tolerant Church in 1821, said land being in Lancaster District on Singleton Creek.

Henry H. Gooch, as has been seen in the preceding records, married Mary Jane McIlwain, daughter of Andrew and Susan Caston McIlwain.

- acfbj. Marguerite Ella Gooch, born Dec. 3, 1891. Lives Fort Lawn. Talented Artist.

There is much more to the paper, however since it covers generations past 1900, the editor decided it would not be very valuable to researchers. Editor.

INVENTORY OF THE GOOCH FAMILY CEMETERY
TAR RIVER DISTRICT, GRANVILLE COUNTY, NORTH CAROLINA

SURVEYED IN 1989 BY J. DANIEL MAHAR

This country graveyard is a combination of marked tombstones and crude stone grave markers. Tombstone dates show that this burial ground was used between 1822 and 1890. The yard is surrounded by a spiked iron fence punctuated with ornately topped posts. The oldest burial known, is that of Nancey Sneed Gooch who died in 1822; however oral family history recalls that Joseph Gooch's tombstone once stood in this yard, last seen in the 1950s. Joseph died in 1810. A descendant, Eugene Currin claimed to have seen the overturned tombstone of Joseph by the graveyard gate. Mr. Currin died soon after the sighting and no other record of the stone has been found. All engraved stones seem to be products of skilled craftsmen rather than home made, and compare to similar stones found in local graveyards. It seems that many of the stones are not contemporary to the burials and may be replacements for older markers. Decoration is found only on three of the headstones. Most tombstones are slender plain marble.

The Gooch Family Cemetery is flanked by State Road 1152, now the Lucy Averette Road and the Enon Church Road. The yard is to be found on a logging road not far above the bridge over the river Tar. The cemetery is located about 200 yards off the Enon Church Road.

Though the cemetery is easily accessible, it is not shown on the U.S. Geological Survey and is in disrepair. Heavy over growth and sapling trees have begun to reclaim the yard to nature. However, this cemetery is repairable. Most of the tombstones are in good condition, many with foot stones (or foot markers). Many of the tombstones are made of two pieces of stone the tombstone and its base. The most common problem is the uneven settling of the bases which the tombstones fit into. Their unevenness has caused many of the headstones to break. There are many cruder grave markings of fashioned and planted stones which need to be saved from being buried or uprooted. These markers are either indications of slave burials or graves that never got (or are missing) headstones. The iron fence which surrounds the yard is rusted, but in working condition and restorable.

The Gooch Family appears in Granville about 1775, when Rowland Gooch settles on Howel's Creek at the branch of Island Creek and Howel Creek in North Central Granville County. Rowland's father, John Gooch Sr. settled in Granville County along with his sons Rowland, Joseph, and Gideon Gooch and his son-in-laws Joseph Minter and James Terry. Most of these men seem to settle in the Island Creek District of Granville County, though Joseph purchase his first tract in Tar River District where this cemetery is found. Joseph Gooch arrived in Granville about 1789 and bought 800 acres on either side of the Tar River. The graveyard may be located on what was once his plantation. Joseph's son Daniel Gooch did settle in the Tar River District and his home plantation was situated on the farm that the graveyard sits on. Daniel's land was in part the original grant owned by Joseph, however, Daniel bought an additional 284 acres North of the Tar River from Thomas Person in 1805. In all, Daniel's land covered 900 acres on both banks of the Tar River. The farms were passed on to his sons Joseph, Amos and William, as well as, his daughters Hannah and Nancy. Daniel Terry Gooch inherited the lands of Hannah Gooch known as the Howard Tract, which the graveyard and the house [now known as the Lena Gooch Place] above the yard are situated on. Granville County deeds and plats confirm that this land is the same land mentioned in Daniel's will of 1837.

The Inventory

1. Dudley S. Gooch \ born \ Aug. 1, 1804 \ died \ Mar. 12, 1863 \ Age 59 ys 4 ms 19 ds

An elaborate podium type tomb with a carved stone closed book on top and shallow engraving. Strangely, the tomb's front faces the fence. Identical with the tombstone of his first wife Mary Jane Bennett, probably both were placed much later than the internment of the bodies. The tombstone is accompanied with a marble foot mark engraved with D.S.G. The ground is somewhat sunken.

Dudley Snead Gooch is the tenth child of Daniel and Nancey (nee Sneed) Gooch. He was married twice, once to Mary Jane Bennett "Polly" and second to Mary Frances Jones known as "Indiana" a daughter of William Jones. Both wives proceeded Dudley in death. Dudley probably died in Nash County, where he owned a large farm on the Tar River just south of Spring Hope. He had nine children by his first wife and two by his second.

2. Nancy Gooch \ born \ Jan 29, 1811 \ died \ Apr 25, 1862

The tombstone is typical of the yard, marble rectangular with a curved top. The stone is fitted into a heavy base. There is also a marble foot marker engraved with N.G.

Nancy Gooch is the twelfth and last child of Daniel and Nancey (nee Sneed) Gooch. She is mentioned as an unmarried daughter in her father's will and apparently never married. She lived in her father's "mansion" house with her spinster sister Hannah and bachelor brother Amos. It seems likely that Nancy was ill or bedridden part of her life. Her tombstone is contemporary with that of Hannah and Amos', Hannah left provision in her will of $100.00 for her tombstone and that of Nancy and Amos.

3. Unknown

A large flat unfashioned dark stone located behind the tombstone of Nancy Gooch. It is broken in two. Possibly a support for a previous tombstone or the original grave marker for Nancy's burial place, before the marble stone replaced it.

4. Nancey Sneed \ born \ Augt, 1,1766, \ was married to \ Danl, Gooch \ Oct, 7, 1789, \ died \ June 23, 1823

This tombstone is a more slender version of the marble stones found in this yard. The stone also seems stronger and less brittle than the other marble stones. The stone was found buried and faced down in 1989 by this informant. Very good condition and identical to that of her husbands nearby. May not be contemporary with internment. The original location of the grave is not evident, no tombstone base, sunken area or foot marker is found near by to suggest grave site.

Nancey Sneed is the daughter of Captian Samuel and Jain (nee Dudley) Sneed of Granville and Person County. Her father was a large landowner who settled in Granville about 1760 and is recorded in Person County in the 1800s. Nancey's brother Stephen was the County Clerk for Granville for many years. Her other brother Col. Thomas Sneed served in the House of Commons for North Carolina in the 1820s. Nancey was married only once and had at least twelve children.

5. Daniel Gooch \ born \ Aug, 26, 1756 \ died \ Novr, -- 1837

Daniel's tombstone is identical with that of his wife's, Nancey. The stone is a sturdy, but slender marble rectangular with a curved top. This stone too, is displaced and found, by this informant, leaning up against the fence. No evident stone support, sunken area or foot marker is found near by to show the original grave site. The lack of an exact death date suggests the tombstone post dates internment or/and replaces and older stone.

Daniel is the son of Joseph Gooch and his mother was probably Rachael, who is named in Amelia County, Virginia deeds as Joseph's wife. Daniel was probably born in Carolina County, Virginia, where his father lived before their emigration to Amelia in 1760. Joseph and Daniel later emigrated to Granville County in the 1780s. Daniel owned 900 acres on either side of the Tar River in the Tar River District, along with land on the Neuse River and in the Knapp of the Reeds District. He served as County Entry Taker and probably was a Justice of the Peace for Granville County. Family records list his death date as, the 18th of November 1837.

A small unfashioned stone planted in the ground, no apparent markings.

7. Unknown

Four shaped cylindrical stones placed in the corners of a rectangular area. This may be four, two, or one burial area. It's placement in the graveyard is prominent and central in location. Little evidence of sunken ground.

8. Mary J. Bennett \ wife of \ Dudley S. Gooch \ died Dec. 9, 1848

This podium like grave marker is identical to her husbands, except the placement is "opposite", her tomb is facing towards the yard gate. A marble foot stone is buried quite a distance in front and marked with M.J.B.G.

Mary Jane Bennett may be the daughter of Charles and Martha (nee Walker) Bennett. She probably grew up in the Tar River District area. She married Dudley in Granville County and lived first in the Tar River District and then in the Goshen District. She died less than a month after the birth of her son Dudley Snead jr. She gave birth to nine children in all.

9. Susan H. Gooch \ born \ Aug 14. 1837 \ died \ Feby 28, 1855 \ not death but sleepth

This the most ornate of the old stones. A rectangular marble slab with a curved top and beveled edges it has within the curve a carved rose. The stone is solidly attached to its base. There is a foot marker with the initials, S.G. engraved.

Susan H. Gooch is the daughter of Joseph and Susan W. (nee Bennett) Gooch. Her father was a farmer and grist mill owner in the Tar River District. Nothing else is known of Susan.

10. Joseph H. Gooch \ born \ Decr, 12, 1791 \ died \ Sep. 16, 1876. \ Come unto me all ye that \ labor and are heavy laden \ and I will giv you rest.

Similar to his daughter's near by stone (Susan). A rectangular marble stone with a curved top and beveled sides. No ornate carvings. No foot marker.

Joseph is the second child of Daniel and Nancey (nee Sneed) Gooch. He inherited land and slaves in the Tar River District and ran a mill, probably the same that his grandfather Joseph built on the Tar in 1797. Joseph married Susan W. Bennett in Granville and their marriage bond is dated August 1827. Family records list his death year as 1875. It is unknown where his wife is buried.

11. Unknown

Roughly shaped white cylindrical stone with no apparent engravings. Evident heavily sunken area before the stone. Obviously a grave.

12. J.D. Gooch \ born \ Feb. 5, 1842 \ died \ Sept. 2, 1875

A rectangular marble stone with a curved top. Typical of the stones in this yard. Tombstone has been broken out of its support and is now leaning against it's support. Not foot marker.

This probably Joseph son of Daniel Terry and Nancy (nee Hester) Gooch. A Joseph is listed on the 1850 Census in their family, but is listed as being born in 1847.

13. L.T. Gooch \ born Sept 17, 1850, \ died \ Aug. 24, 1875

A rectangular marble stone with a curved top. Typical of the stones in this yard. The tombstone has been broken out of it's support and is now leaning against it's support. Very slender marble foot stone engraved with L.T.G.

Possibly the infant listed on the 1850 Census in the household of Daniel Terry Gooch.

14. Infant \ daughter of W. & S. Cheatham \ 1869

A tall slender marble rectangular stone with a curved top and what seems to be a marble base, cut from one piece.? Some of the engraving is in cursive, different, more elegant than most of the stones. No foot marker.

The Cheatham family married into the Daniel Terry Gooch family and lived in this area. Sally Gooch daughter of D.T. Gooch married William H. H. Cheatham in 1868. They may have lived in what is now known as the Lena Gooch Place.

15. S.A. Gooch, \ born \ Dec. 22, 1842 \ died \ Aug 15, 1862

A rectangular marble stone with a curved top and separate base. Typical of the tombstones in the yard. Stone found still in base. A slender marble foot marker engraved with S.A.G.

This is probably the grave of Sam Gooch a son of Daniel Terry and Nancy (nee Hester) Gooch. In a letter found in a collection of letters belonging to Amos Gooch, there is mentioned a Sam Gooch who died in the Civil War, this is probably the same Sam[re: North Carolina State Library, Granville Co. Misc. Papers].

16. Rachael A. Gooch, \ born \ Aug. 26, 1838, \ died \ Feb. 17, 1864.

A rectangular marble stone with a curved top and separate base. This stone was still in it's base and in good condition. Has a marble foot marker engraved with R.A.G.

Rachael is the daughter of Daniel Terry and Nancy (nee Hester) Gooch. She is recorded on the 1850 Census with that family.

17. Unknown

A large unfashioned dark flat stone located behind Rachael A. Gooch's stone. May be a support or and old marker. No evidence of an inscription.

18. Nancy H. \ wife of \ D.T. Gooch, \ born \ July 15, 1806, \ died \ Aug. 25, 1862

A rectangular marble stone with a curved top and separate base. This stone was found intact in it's base. No apparent foot marker

Nancy is the daughter of Robert and Nancy (nee Walker) Hester. She married Daniel Terry Gooch in 1831. Daniel Terry Gooch lived in the Tar River District and owned a toll bridge over the Tar River. He inherited land from his sister Hannah which is probably the same farm now known as the Lena Gooch Place.

19. Unknown

A slender marble marker, like a foot stone but clipped on one side. Planted ever with the other head stones in the row. No apparent engraving. Sunken ground before the stone.

20. W.N. Gooch \ born \ Nov. 6, 1845 \ died \ Sept. 1, 1888

A rectangular marble stone with a curved top and a separate base. Found broken out of it's support. No apparent foot marker.

William Noah Gooch is the son of Daniel Terry and Nancy (nee Hester) Gooch. He married Celestia Anne Cheatham and probably lived in the house now known as the Lena Gooch Place, named after his spinster daughter.

[END OF MIDDLE ROW]

21. Empty Quarter

This area is heavily over grown and strangely empty of tombstones. It is likely that there are grave sites here which are covered.

22. Unknown

A crude squared pillar-shaped marker. Found on it's side at the base\head of a deep depression in the ground. No apparent inscription found.

23./24. Unknown

Two unfashioned stone markers found flat on the ground. These stones are placed on either side of the entrance as you walk into the graveyard. Both have a smooth top surface and are of a similar brown colored stone. They may have marked an earlier entrance or are displaced grave markers.

25. Hannah Gooch \ born \ Oct. 7, 1800, \ died \ June 3, 1890

A rectangular marble stone with a curved top and inserted in a heavy base. Typical of this graveyard. There is a foot marker of marble, engraved with H.G.

Hannah Gooch is the eighth child of Daniel and Nancey (nee Sneed) Gooch. she never married and lived with her spinster sister Nancy and her bachelor brother Amos. Her father provided her with a farm and his house, for her services to him in his old age. This farm is thought to be what is now known as the Lena Gooch Place. In her will Hannah gives the middle initial A. and is listed as Annie on the 1880 Census. She raised several of her orphaned nieces and nephews. It is her will that leaves money for the headstones of Nancy, Amos and herself. She was a member of the Geneva Presbyterian Church.

26. Unknown

A whitish unfashioned marker. Rough and lozenge shape. Located behind the head stone of Hannah Gooch.

27. Amos Gooch \ born \ Aug. 10, 1802, \ died \ Mar. 7, 1885

A rectangular marble headstone with a curved top and inserted in a stone base. Typical of the stone s in this graveyard. A marble foot marker i s engraved with A.G.

Amos is the ninth child of Daniel and Nancey (nee Sneed) Gooch. It is thought that he never married, or was widowed early in life. He lived with his sisters Hannah and Nancy. He was a wealthy farmer in the Tar River District, later known as the Tally Ho District. He raised and managed the estates of several of his nieces and nephews. A collection of correspondence to him is located in the North Carolina State Library under Granville County Miscellaneous Papers.

If you are not familiar with the church branch libraries, look in your phone book under "Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints". There is one in most medium to large cities and often have a phone just for Family History. They are operated by church member volunteers. Call the one nearest you to learn the schedule and how you may use the facility.

ATTENTION: DESCENDANTS OF FATE AND NANCY GOOCH

The following FGR is an updated re-run of volume 1, no. 1, page 34. Upon comparison one will see lots of added info, but much more is needed. I need to hear from descendents of this family. A number of descendents of Fate and Nancy Gooch still attend the annual Gooch Reunion held each 4th Sunday in July.
